This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. MEMORIALS OF MEREDITH.

I. PRINCIPAL FACTS.

The town was incorporated by the Governor and Council on the 30th of December, 1768, at which time it received its present name.

Previous to its incorporation it was known by the name of New Salem, some of its early settlers being formerly residents of the town of Salem.

It was within the bounds of Mason's Patent, and as incorporated included the present town of Laconia.

By an Act approved December 30, 1799, Stone-dam and Bear Islands were annexed to this town.

A division of the town took place July 14, 1855, the southeasterly portion being incorporated into a town by the name of Laconia.

By an Act approved July 3, 1873, a portion of Meredith was annexed to Centre Harbor.

II. PETITION FOR AN INCORPORATION, 1768.

To his Excellency John Wentworth Esq^{r}. Captain General Governor & Commander in Chief in and over His Majesty's Province of New Hampshire, & the Hon: His Majesty's Council.

The Humble Petition of David Lawrence Esq^{r}. and Ebenezer Smith Gent^{n} in behalf of themselves and others Proprietors & Inhabitants of NEW SALEM (in the Province aforesaid) upon Winipisiokee Pond.

Sheweth

That 17 Families have actually Settled and are now resident in New Salem aforesaid, and four other Families are now preparing to go, & reside there.

That they humbly apprehend they are ripe for an Incorporation; and an Investment with Town Priviledges, which will greatly assist the present Settlement, and accelerate its Completion as they can thereby make proper Highways, & have power to chuse Town Officers &c

They therefore pray your Excell^{cy} & Hon^{rs} to take the premises into your Consideration, and that they may be incorporated accordingly

And your Pet^{rs} will ever pray &c

DAVID LAWRENCE
EBENEZER SMITH

*Laconia was set off in 1855.

IV. PROPRIETARY AND TOWN RECORDS.

The following statement of the periods covered by the Town and other Records of Meredith, the number of volumes, and their condition, etc., was kindly furnished me by Mr. I. C. Boynton, the Town Clerk.

PROPRIETORS' RECORDS.

The Proprietors' Records are complete from November 3d, 1748 to December 30th, 1768. There are occasional records relating to the division of lands, etc., extending a few years later.

TOWN RECORDS.

The first town meeting was called by Ebenezer Smith to assemble on the 20th of March, 1769. The Record of Town Proceedings is complete to the present time, with the exception of that for 1793, which is missing from the end of the first volume. The whole is comprised in five books, as follows:

Volume	I.	1769 to 1792.
"	II.	1794 to 1818.
"	III.	1819 to 1860.
"	IV.	1861 to 1887.
"	V.	1888 to 1891.

BIRTHS, MARRIAGES AND DEATHS.

The record of Marriages begins with 1805, and is thought to be complete, or nearly so, for the years following to 1891. The Births and Deaths previous to 1848 are not preserved, and many are omitted before 1884. The records from 1885 to 1891 are supposed to be complete.

MISCELLANEOUS RECORDS.

There is a volume of Highway Records from 1785 to 1848, in a damaged condition. Another volume continues to the present time. Miscellaneous records have been kept since 1851. None of the original papers are preserved.

V. PRIVATE BURIAL GROUNDS.

Several private burial places were observed in and about Meredith. Two in the northeastern part of the town were visited, and the inscriptions on the monuments copied. The Leavitt burial ground is situated near the site of the early home of Dudley Leavitt in Meredith, on an old road, now closed to travel, leading to the farm of Rufus L. Veasey. I am indebted to Miss H. J. Leavitt, a granddaughter of Dudley Leavitt, for the information embodied in the notes.

The Fogg burial ground is situated on a deserted farmstead, at the top of the hill on the old road from Meredith to Centre Harbor, about three miles from Meredith Village. Near by is the house, now unoccupied and falling into decay, of the late owner of the farm, Chase Fogg, whose remains, with those of his wife, I am informed, rest in this ground.

NOTE TO NO. 1.

Dudley Leavitt, widely known as "Old Master Leavitt," was a descendant in the fifth generation from John Leavitt, the emigrant from England, and freeman of Hingham, Massachusetts, in 1636, through Joshua[4], Joseph[3] and Moses[2]. Dudley was born in Exeter, New Hampshire, May 23, 1772. In early life he removed to Gilmanton, where he engaged in school-teaching, and, in 1800, edited the Gilmanton Gazette. The first number of his famous Almanac was issued for 1797, and he continued its publication annually during the remainder of his life, making his own calculations and supplying the whole matter. The Almanac is still published in Concord. In 1806 Mr. Leavitt took up his residence in Meredith, on the fine farm now in the possession of his descendants. In 1811 he established the New Hampshire Register, which he edited several years; he also prepared an Arithmetic and a Grammar for use in Schools. His works gained for him some distinction in Europe.

Dudley Leavitt married Judith Glidden (born March 13, 1778) of Gilmanton, New Hampshire. Their children were:—

Betsey, born June 20, 1795; died May 16, 1858. Married Joseph Bartlett.
Isaac, born June 17, 1797; died March 2, 1798.
Isaac, born December 31, 1798; died November 8, 1881. Married Sarah Smith.

Enos, born January 30, 1801; died June 6, 1819.
Josiah, born December 15, 1802; died November 3, 1837. Married Patience Kenney.
Judith, born April 8, 1805; died November 15, 1813.
Jane, born June 29, 1807; died March, 1851. Married Rev. John L Seymour, and was a missionary among the Indians.
Dudley, born June 19, 1810; died January 7, 1842.
Mary, born March 25, 1813; died July 4, 1886. Married Josiah Prescott.
Judith, born September 24, 1815; died March 21, 1846. Married Rev. John Taylor Jones, and was a missionary at Bangkok, Siam.
Sivilla, born July 16, 1818; died July 21, 1858. Married Charles Prescott.

NOTE TO NO. 4.

Dudley was a graduate of Dartmouth College, class of 1839. He prepared for the ministry at Andover, and was stricken with paralysis a few hours before his classmates were licensed.

NOTE TO NO. 6.

Eddie C. was a grandson of Isaac Leavitt, and a great-grandson of Dudley Leavitt senior.

NOTE TO NOS. 3 AND 4.

These were father and son. The mother of Daniel Cass senior was a sister of Stephen Fogg.

NOTE TO NOS. 5 AND 6.

The Rev. Francis E. Cleves was a Baptist clergyman, and preached at Sanbornton, Littleton and New Boston in New Hampshire, and Woodville, Massachusetts. His wife was a daughter of Chase Fogg and a granddaughter of Stephen Fogg.

ADDENDA.

The following facts concerning the persons buried in the Fogg ground were kindly given by Mrs. P. W. Heath, a daughter of Chase Fogg, in a communication received after the body of this pamphlet was printed.

Nos. 1 and 2. Stephen Fogg was the first of the family who settled on the farm in Meredith. He was undoubtedly the Stephen mentioned in the Sanbornton records before 1800. He married Sally Marsh. Chase Fogg was their son. The latter died February 25th, 1873, aged 75 years, 2 months and 6 days. His wife, Sally B. Leavitt Fogg, died June 1st, 1888, aged 89 years, 9 months and 17 days.

Nos. 5 & 6. The Rev. Mr. Cleves died in Springfield, Mass. It was at Littleton, Massachusetts, that he preached, not New Hampshire. Josiah Fogg, whose name appears in No. 6, was a cousin of Mrs. Cleves.

No. 8. Annie was the daughter of Mr. Cleves by his second wife, who was a sister of his first wife. This child died in April, 1874.

No. 10. Mrs. Kenney was a sister of Daniel Cass senior. George W. (No. 13) was her son.

No. 14. Mrs. Mary Wilson was a sister of Chase Fogg's wife.

This book should be returned to the Library on or before the last date stamped below.

A fine of five cents a day is incurred by retaining it beyond the specified time.

Please return promptly.
